CREATIVE APPLICATIONS OF TECHNOLOGY

Nowhere Fast: Jordan Griska Reception: Friday, April 23rd from 5 - 8pm

The exhibition will be on view at the Esther Klein Gallery (EKG) from April 23rd through June 25th, 2010. Nowhere Fast features recent works by Jordan Griska, a Philadelphia-based artist who creates large-scale sculptural works & performances that combine themes of the body, science and exploration. For more information about the artist, please visit jordangriska.com

Breadboard is a hybrid program that explores intersections between contemporary art, design, science and technology. Expanding on 30+ years of Esther Klein Gallery programming, Breadboard's mission is to convene communities around creative applications of technology. Breadboard is the non-profit partner of NextFab Studio, a new membership-based, high-tech workshop and prototyping center located at 3711 Market St. Breadboard manages two venues located at the University City Science Center: the Esther Klein Gallery and the Breadboard Community Space.

The Esther Klein Gallery is located at 3600 Market St. in Philadelphia, PA. The gallery is open Monday through Saturday from 9am to 5pm. For more information and exhibit updates, visit breadboardphilly.org
